

Creative Art Approaches to CBT Online Workshop

Based on Dr. Patricia Sherwood's Best-Selling book!

Workshop Overview

* Prior Knowledge of CBT is not a requirement.

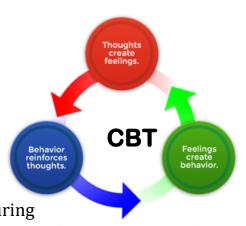

Based on the book by Dr Sherwood, each section of the training focuses on the core tenets of Cognitive Behaviour Therapy (CBT). These sequences are particularly suitable for children and adolescents who have low levels of verbal skills or are non-communicative.

Learning Goals

- Provide clear theoretical rationale of how creative art therapy exercises relate to the core tenets of CBT- including relaxation and self-regulation, guided image creation, social skills training, behavioural experiments, restricting and reframing, exposure, desensitisation and relapse prevention.
- Focus on diagnostic techniques/artistic interventions that can be evaluated both pre and post intervention;

Specific areas:

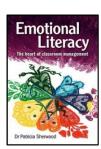

- Anger Management
- Grief and loss
- Self Regulation
- Releasing guilt
- Anxiety and Depression
- Consolidating cognitive reframing and restructuring
